100% of proceeds go to Centennial Mental Health Center to help support Behavioral Health and Prevention Services.

Sterling Journey clients raised funds by making and selling breakfast burritos, coffee and other baked goods at the 2018 Ride. These dollars augmented other fund raisers and allowed clients to enjoy trips and activities that were both recreational and educational. Clients practiced life skills while they attended a Broncos game, visited the Botanical Gardens, toured the train museum and participated in trips to restaurants in Denver.
