JEANS FOR JOY TOMORROW

If you are participating in Jeans for Joy this year and have paid to wear jeans on Tuesdays, tomorrow is our FIFTH TUESDAY, and you can also participate in the fun of dressing up!

Don't forget!

December 14th - Wear Polka Dots!

Also please send any socially distanced photos to jacy@centennialmhc.org so we can share your participation!

JEANS FOR JOY PARTICIPATION

On the 7th supporting the Jeans for Joy cause were some Business office staff! Included in the photo with their colorful crazy socks are: Kris Schell, Maranda Miller, Candice Altis, Trudie Littlefield, Stacy Maier, Karla Rosas, Kate Johnson & Jaci Yula. Thank you all for your participation and for wearing your awesome socks!

GOT ANY MUSICAL TALENTS??

Wowee we have a lot of musical talent within our Centennial walls!

Aaron Shea: I used to play in a progressive metal band called Bodies We've buried. I played Bass and did some vocals. Here is a link to one of our songs: Click here. I have played for various bands in my younger years, but this one was the most consistent. We recorded 3 albums together and played many, many shows!

Arcelie Lopes: I can sing enough to enjoy my songs, play guitar enough to accompany myself in my singing and I love singing with karaoke.

Jaci Yula: I am self taught in the ukelele, guitar, cajon and some piano. I have sang for events since I was little and still do, I've been a part of a community musical theatre group since 2011, and I'm also part of two community choirs. Here's a link to my Soundcloud:

Karla Rosas: I have played piano since she I was in first grade.

We WANT to KNOW you!

Liz Hickman: I can play the Indian aka Native American flute.

Thomas Hensman: I played piano for 8 years, trumpet for 5, French horn for 2 and the baritone for 2 years as well.

Zoey thompson: I play guitar, bass guitar, drums, clarinet, and I sing. I used to also play the French horn but I do not own one, I also do not currently have a drum set. I graduated from the Art Institute of Colorado in 1994 with a degree in Music and Video Business.

Leah Brown: I play flute, saxophone, and piano. I have also sang solo, in a quartet, and several choirs.
