Erin Pounds

Erin Pounds and Amy Nation, Early Childhood Mental Health Consultants recently received their endorsement from the Colorado Association of Infant Mental Health (COAIMH). Both Erin and Amy are now endorsed as: IECMH-E Infant and Early Childhood Family Specialist.

Amy Nation

The endorsement recognizes culturally sensitive, relationship- focused practice promoting infant and early childhood mental health. This endorsement recognizes an individual's professional skills and knowledge in infant mental health, and applicants must complete a certain amount of professional development hours along with other requirements.

Meet Shaylyn!

I was born in Colorado, and raised in Sterling. I attended Northeastern Junior College for two years and then I continued my education at University of Northern Colorado where I graduated with my bachelors in Criminal Justice and minored in sociology and psychology. I enjoy watching and participating in sports. My family has had Bronco season tickets since 2007 and I have been attending ever since. I love expressing myself through my clothes and nail designs.
