In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the board that licenses, registers and certifies the licensee, registrant or certificate holder.

Generally speaking, the information provided by and to the client during therapy sessions is legally confidential and cannot be released without the client's consent. There are exceptions to this confidentiality, some of which are listed in section 12.43.218 of the Colorado Revised Statutes, as well as other exceptions in Colorado and Federal law. For example, mental health professionals are required to report suspected child abuse to authorities. If a legal exception arises during therapy, if feasible, you will be informed accordingly. The Mental Health Practice Act (CRS 12.43.101, et seq.) is available at: <http://www.dora.state.co.us/mental-health/Statute.pdf>.
